

Announcement: 6th Günther Uecker Research Fellowship Günther Uecker Institute e.V.

The Günther Uecker Institute is an independent cultural institution that supports international scholars in the field of contemporary art theory. Based in Schwerin, Germany, we support researchers and their innovative projects worldwide.

We are announcing the 6th Günther Uecker Research Fellowship, for 2023, especially addressing scholars examining the work of Günther Uecker and its context from new discursive perspectives. In the 2023 year of funding, our institute will focus particularly on aspects of the performative immanent to Uecker's oeuvre and its context. Projects that explore his artistic actions and strategies of the ephemeral are particularly welcome.

The call for applications is open to scholars holding a master's degree, doctoral students, or postdoctoral researchers from the fields of cultural studies, visual art, or related disciplines. A prerequisite for the application is an innovative research project that will be completed and presented during the course of the fellowship in either German or English. The scholarly project may be published in our series Notizen zu Uecker.

The fellowship is awarded by a jury of independent experts.

Fellowship amount: 1,200 Euros per month

Fellowship duration: 5 months

Start of funding: flexible, beginning in 2023

Travel subsidies will be granted upon request.

Please submit your completed application documents consisting of:

- Project outline (maximum 3 pages)
